By car

Follow the signs to Brighton Station and park in the station car park off Stroudley Road. Walk through the station to the rear Stroudley Road exit.

By train

From Brighton Station, leave the station by the rear (Stroudley Road) exit. Once outside, take an immediate right turn down the steps (Fenchurch Walk) and walk for approximately 70m. Turn right onto Fleet Street and walk for approximately 80m to The Brinell Building.

Alternatively, should you not wish to use the steps, leave the Brighton Station via the front of the station and turn left down Trafalgar Street for 50m, then turn left into Station Street. The Brinell Building can be found at the far end of Station Street. This will take approximately one minute longer than the route above.
